Modern Living Show Starts Today at Rink

More than 60 area exhibitors will be featured in the "Modern Living Show," sponsored by the Granite City Rotary Club, which gets under way at 6 p.m. today and continues through Sunday at the Wilson Park rink-pavilion. Searchlights, furnished by the Granite City Army Depot, will ring the exhibition site to guide visitors to the four-day show. In addition to displays showing the latest home furnishings and appliances, exhibits will include industrial presentation, home services and special booths where information on real estate, mobile homes, current political candidates and civic and youth programs will be presented. Midway rides for youngsters and entertainment, appealing to both young and old, will be spotlighted each evening of the show and officials report that prizes valued in excess of $1000 are to be offered to those attending.

A major gift will be awarded at 9:30 p.m. each day the show is open, with an electric sewing machine to be presented each night, a motor scooter tomorrow and a set of four deluxe tires on Saturday evening. At 5 p.m. Sunday, a grand prize—a color television set—will be awarded.

Hours for Show
Carl E. Mathias, general chairman, said today the public is invited to enjoy the "Modern Living Show" from 6 to 10:30 p.m. today and tomorrow; from 1 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Saturday and from 1 to 6 p.m. on Sunday. An admission fee of 25 cents per person will be charged at the door.

The show will cater to a variety of tastes and interests, the chairman said, pointing out that while adults inside the pavilion are learning how important the individual vote can be in determining the outcome of an election at the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce booth, the youngsters can enjoy a ride on the carousel.

GC Council To Restudy Urban Renewal

Urban renewal will be given another study by Granite City council members who voted Monday night to select a committee to meet with downtown merchants and City Plan Commission members to review the proposal and determine any changes to be made.

Serving on the council committee will be Mayor Partney and the aldermen of the First, Second and Third Wards through the four-block area proposed for an urban renewal project back in mid-September 1967.

The aldermen of the First Ward, Bartoski and Whitmer of the Second and Boyd and Poulos of the Third.

Arrangements for the meeting date are to be made with officers of the Granite City Merchants and the Downtown Retailers.

Several aldermen said they believed the Urban Renewal program should include more of the immediate downtown area and thought retailers were of the same opinion.

Robertson asked if the boundaries of the 1967 proposal could be changed, and Mayor Partney replied that the decision would be up to the council.

The original proposal included the 1900 block of Grand avenue and along 20th street, with the exception of commercial buildings; the east side of the 2000 block of Grand avenue and the west side of the 2000 block of Madison avenue as well as the east side of the 2000 block of Iowa street.

Also included are the east side of the 2100 block of Iowa street and the west side of the 2100 block of Washington avenue.

Reconsideration of the urban renewal proposal was a request of the City Plan Commission and the council has ignored it since voting down a resolution late in 1967 to seek federal planning funds.

Objections to the original plan were raised again Monday night when the council voted to restudy the plan.

Moerlein added that while he was not against urban renewal, he felt the council should be more cautious in its approach.

Con Men Believed Operating Here, GC Police Warn

One or more confidence men are believed to be operating in the Quad-City area, attempting to fleece bank depositors of their savings, Granite City police warned today.

George Teller, acting police chief, said a complaint was received this week from a lady who related an attempt made through a telephone call.

Det. Charles Lee, who answered the complaint, was told that a man purporting to be a representative of a bank had called and told her that there was a discrepancy in her account.

She was told to bring her money to the bank and that the discrepancy was caused by "a twisting of the tapes" at the bank.

Teller said that the police department here has received a teletype message from Wisconsin authorities that this type of confidence man was suspected in this area, as well as Missouri, Minnesota and different parts of the country.

Some swindlers had been captured in Wisconsin and Missouri, he said.

One depositor here was victimized in a similar manner about a year ago, losing a large sum of money, Teller noted.

While several other unsuccessful attempts have been made here since.

Robertson asked if the boundaries of the 1967 proposal could be changed, and Mayor Partney replied that the decision would be up to the council.

Class Schedules In Madison Told

Classes will start at 9 a.m. for elementary students and at 8:30 a.m. for high school students when Madison schools re-open Monday, Raymond Dragich, superintendent of schools, announced.

Plans are being made to operate cafeteria and provide lunches for the students. School buses are to run on regular schedules.

The ruling was delivered Tuesday by Associate Judge Foss Meyer on a petition for a declaration of rights filed by the board last June 27 was not valid. It was signed by Rex Carr, attorney for the teachers.

Neither the local nor Carr had any authority to resign on behalf of any teacher, he said.

Teachers have a contract with the school district as of today, Judge Meyer said, adding that it is valid and existing and that both parties are bound by it.

Appeal Filed
Carr commented that "this doesn't disturb me one bit. We will file a notice to appeal today. We intend to appeal to a higher court to prove that they (the teachers) have resigned."

It was a sure if an appeal would apply in a rights declaration case.

John Gitchoff, school board attorney, said he would have preferred a ruling upholding the mass resignations. "Then we could have hired regular full-time teachers and we would not have to fool around with substitute teachers," he said.

Carr declared that "now you will have to pay two teachers for the same job. We have 25 teachers against us and 70 with us."

He told Gitchoff that he could hire the 70 teachers if the salary was adequate. Carr also asked Gitchoff to hold a negotiations session.

No Contract Talks
No contract talks are scheduled.

From the witness stand Raymond Dragich, superintendent of schools, told the court that plans have been formed to start school on Monday.

He said that some members of the federation were coming to the board office this week to sign contracts, and that on Tuesday contracts had been signed with 30 teachers on tenure in addition to 20 new teachers who were hired by the district during the summer months.

School administrators are not included in the total. Schools could be operated on a shift basis with 58 teachers, Dragich said, but he expects classes to be operated on a full-time basis as substitute teachers are available. The district normally would employ 120 teachers for this school year.

Dragich said that many applications have been received from substitute teachers, including graduate students in area universities who are working toward their master and doctor degrees.

Teachers Hired for Madison Schools

Court Rules Strikers
Remain Under Contract

The Madison board of education has hired regular and substitute teachers to re-open the schools on Monday after it was ruled that striking teachers remain under contract.

Sp4 Cuvar, 19, Wounded In Action In Vietnam

Army Specialist Four Leonard M. Cuvar, 19, a Granite City paratrooper who has seen constant action in the Vietnam war, was wounded in action near Hue and the De-Militarized Zone in the northern sector of South Vietnam, is recuperating from a left shoulder wound in a military hospital at Cam Ranh Bay.

Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew Cuvar, 2815 Pontoon road, received word that their son was wounded in the left shoulder by grenade fragments while in action near the 17th parallel on Sept. 9. He was hospitalized first at Phu Bai and Qui Nhon before being transferred to the military hospital at Cam Ranh Bay, his mother said.

The 18-year-old squad leader has served in Vietnam since Feb. 18 with the 82nd's 150th Airborne Infantry. When his service was formally relieved and returned to the U. S. in July, SP4 Cuvar was permitted to return home with his unit and spent 14 days with his parents, reporting back to Vietnam on Aug. 2.

"His letter sounds cheerful enough, but he doesn't indicate whether he will be transferred to a hospital in the States, or remain in Vietnam," Mrs. Cuvar commented. She said the soldier noted he would receive a Purple Heart Medal in a week or two.

"Len has been in constant fighting and on missions close to the DMZ ever since he came to Vietnam, and we have been very worried about him, especially when we knew he was near Hue, where they've had a lot of action recently," Mrs. Cuvar said.

To date, the wounded serviceman is the second Cuvar son to serve in Vietnam, and a third son, Daniel P. Cuvar, 17, is scheduled to leave New York this week aboard the USS Forestal for duty in Southeast Asia.

Jacobs Cuvar returned home from Vietnam earlier this year and has since been discharged from the service and a fourth son, Robert, is now back from duty in Germany. "And we

Council Votes to Support Limit on Steel Imports

Support of proposed limits on steel imports and the impact of lower costs of scrap metal on ridding city streets of abandoned autos were among major topics at Monday night's meeting of the Granite City council. The council went on record to urge Illinois' U. S. Senators and a representative to support proposed federal legislation to set limits on steel imports.

Several aldermen pointed out the dependency of Granite City on the steel industry and the need for limitations on imports to protect jobs here. "This importation of steel without any restrictions hurts us," Alderman Nomm commented.

Abandon Auto Fee

Council members agreed upon the need to pay a $10 charge for removal of abandoned autos from city streets and lots. Alderman Rutledge, under consideration will be the pay for the mayor, $875 per month; city clerk, $600 a month plus fees; and the city treasurer-township tax collector, $756 a month.

Barzoff had been hauling the autos away without charge, but a recently announced reduction in the price paid for scrap autos and the specifications in preparing them for the scrap pile, resulted in the request to the council for the fee. An effort will be made to trace ownership to collect the tow-away fee.

Possible pay increases for elected officials, whose offices are to be filled in the city election next spring are to be considered. "This should be done four months before the election in April and we should start giving this consideration now," it was recommended by Alderman Rutledge. Under consideration will be the pay for the mayor, $875 per month; city clerk, $600 a month plus fees; and the city treasurer-township tax collector, $756 a month.

Venice School Tax Levy--$811,150; Boost of $30,814

A tax levy totaling $811,150, up $30,814 over last year, was approved Monday evening by Venice school board members. The increase is expected to raise the tax rate about eight cents per $100 assessed valuation. Overall school tax rate in 1967 was $2.22.

The total levy is based on the $1,286,319 budget adopted by the Venice school board a week ago. The record-breaking appropriation is up $257,127 over the previous year, with the principal difference appearing in the education fund, where $237,720 is provided for establishment of the new adult education program.

The Venice school district will receive tuition revenues from state and federal sources in the same amount for adult vocational programs at the Venice-Lincoln Technical School. Venice School Supt. John O. Pier estimated that the school tax rate for next year's collection will be $2.30, compared to the $2.22 rate used for this summer's collection.

A breakdown of the expected new tax rate and the amounts levied follows: Education--$1.65, $988,452, up $2702; building--35 cents, $118,582, up $26,338; transportation--5.5 cents, $18,634, up $894; Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund--five cents, $16,940, up $6296; working cash--2.94 cents, $10,000, same; bonds and interest--14.70 cents, $51,785, down $12,147; joint agreement (special education)--one cent, $3388, up $3388; and junior college fund--one cent, $3388, up $3388.

Principal tax rate increases are expected in the building fund, up seven cents; the retirement fund, up two cents; and a new levy of one cent each for special education and junior college tuition. A drop of four cents is expected in the bonds and interest fund.

In other business Monday evening, the board approved payment of monthly bills, totaling $24,078 in the education fund; $5065 in the building fund; $738, transportation fund; $861, junior college fund; and $3732 for vocational school expenses, reimbursable from state public aid funds.

enough to get comparable homes in other areas.

Permission was given to Lawrence Oberdeck, 2139 Washington avenue, to speak. He said the offer he had received would cause him a $1000 loss. "They're pricing me out of existence. It's ridiculous for the hospital to use the city as a lever."

UR Figures Not Set
He was corrected by Mayor Pettway, who explained that Oberdeck apparently had been approached by an agent for St. Elizabeth Hospital. "No prices have been set for individual properties under the urban renewal program. That won't be done until we get the federal planning funds."

Further objection to urban renewal was made by Alderman Green, who said the council should pay attention to news media. "Look at the Mill Creek area in St. Louis. It still looks like a bleak desert. There are some new businesses there, but we don't know how many years it will take to develop the area here."

Moerlein said the residents of the area designated for urban renewal now are close to downtown stores. "They have all conveniences within walking distance and are close to lines now. Only a few of these people could afford to hire a lawyer and go to court to fight for their property," Moerlein added.

As the closing argument, Nomm asked what the city could do financially with property worth about a half-million dollars taken off the tax books.

The vote to authorize the committee to meet with the Plan Commission and retailers was unanimous.

Fund Continues
While the council proceeded to agree on selection of a committee, the mayor-council fund over regular committee appointments continued.

Reports by Alderman Rutledge, the mayor's selection for Finance committee chairman, were again voted down, only to be revived later in the council session through reconsideration motion and then approved. These included the $105,854 bill, sewer financial reports and the retroactive pay increases for city employees totaling $41,337.

The treasurer's financial report was rejected under Rutledge's recommendation and was not brought up again.

There was a hassle over the retroactive pay as Moerlein called for separation of the extra increases granted sewage treatment plant employees to make their pay equal to street department workers.

Moerlein said he could find nothing in the council meeting minutes on adoption of a resolution giving the plant employees to make their pay equal to street department workers. He was reminded the action was taken during an adjourned meeting late in August when the city tax levy ordinance was approved.

The alderman said the double increases were unfair to the plant superintendent, his assistant and the maintenance man who did not receive overtime pay and received only the regular $55 monthly pay boost given most city employees.

He added that the double increases made the pay of Granite City treatment plant workers the highest in the state. "I still say," he added, "that the wages will force the city to increase the 90-cent monthly charge for treatment. The increases should be based on job classification for the street department."

Bartosiek motioned for the back pay for the treatment plant workers to be paid. Fry added that he doubted if any changes now could be made, since the council had approved the double boosts.

Murder Charge Filed in Fatal Venice Shooting

William Clark, 40, of 804 Madison street, Madison, was charged with murder in a warrant issued by Venice police yesterday following the fatal shooting of Ester Hearn, 49, at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Clark was taken to the county jail at Edwardsville to await a preliminary hearing, Venice police said.

The shooting occurred in the Eldorado Lounge, 401 Weaver street, Venice. Hearn lived in rooms above the tavern.

Police said witnesses told them Clark had been displaying a gun at various times while he was drinking in the tavern and had been told by several persons to put it away. Clark, while sitting at a table, pointed the gun at Hearn and fired for no apparent reason, it was reported.

Hearn, who was seated at the bar, fell to the floor by the tavern entrance. He was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Police recovered the gun, a .25 caliber automatic.

Coroner Leonard Davis said the bullet entered Hearn's left side and ranged upward to the front top of the rib cage. Hearn's body was taken to an East St. Louis funeral home.

Police ordered the Eldorado Lounge closed pending further action by the Venice council Friday night.

State Sequi Money Being Distributed

The Sequiquennial Commission this week began distribution of $53,967.50 in checks to county Sequiquennial committees throughout the state.

The fund represents proceeds from the sale of the 1968 Illinois Sequiquennial medallions and the money is to be used for local expenses for Sequiquennial events. The checks will go to county organizations that have filed financial reports and budget requirements. When all counties have reported, total refunds will be about $100,000. Commemorative medallions are being sold exclusively by banks and savings and loan associations throughout the state for a non-profit basis. To date, the Illinois medallion program ranks as the most successful ever carried on by any state.

Pvt. James Karandjeff Trained as Engineer

Army Pvt. James H. Karandjeff, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Karandjeff, 88 Oak lawn drive, has completed advanced training as a combat engineer at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

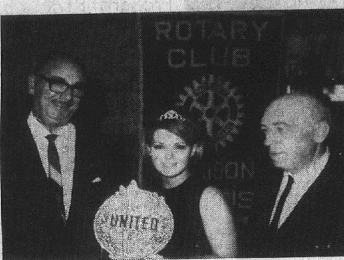

He entered the Army in May 1968 and completed basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J. Pvt. Karandjeff was graduated from Granite City high school in 1964 and received his B.A. degree in education from Westminster College, Fulton. Before entering the Army, he was employed by the American National Bank, Granite City.

The Sewage Treatment Plant committee, recalled how the project engineers had suggested a $1.25 monthly fee per house.

He said, "The committee fought this and held out for the 90-cent fee with the narrow margin of only a nickel to provide the cushion. No one can convince me that the rate won't go up in five years."

In the vote to pay the double increase retroactive pay to treatment plant workers, those voting "yes" were Dallas, Bartosiek, Whitmer, Boyd, Poulos, Rutledge, Basarich, Nomm, Fry and Parmley. Opposed were Moerlein and Johnson.

UNITED FUND DRIVE

is the topic of this discussion between (left to right) Mayor Stephen Maerz, chairman of the UF Madison division; Miss Leetta Marmion, who is aiding promotion of the annual fund campaign; and Will Radman, Madison Rotary club president. The lower photograph shows Miss Marmion, the reigning Miss Granite City, entertaining Madison Rotarians with vocal selections; accompanist is Mrs. Sherry Krieschok.

Value of United Giving Cited at Madison Meeting

American society is threatened like civilizations of the past but it will survive because Americans care about helping the unfortunate, Madison Rotarians were told yesterday in hearing a report on plans for the United Fund campaign in October.

The speaker was Thomas Kolesa, publicity and promotion chairman of the campaign staff headed by Thomas R. Remington. George Becker is vice-chairman of the 19-agency $387,104 drive opening Oct. 7.

Kolesa recalled the declines of Carthage and Rome and said the work of United Fund-financed agencies can do much to assure that the present civilization continues.

"It is not so much that we think ours is an invincible society. We all know that something is happening to us. But we care, and we believe," Kolesa said.

"We believe that the handicapped should be helped to live normal lives. We believe that troubled families should be provided with counseling services."

"Help for All in Need" "We believe that old people have a right to live. We believe that the time to help kids is before they get into difficulty. We believe that all those in need should be helped."

He was assisted in presenting the Rotary program by Miss Leetta Marmion, the reigning Miss Granite City, who is aiding in the promotion of the United Fund campaign. She appeared as a vocal soloist and also led group singing by the Rotary members. Wayne Scamell assisted as vocal leader.

The Rotarians also viewed a color film, "A Fair Share—Your Gift of Hope," which portrayed the role of UF agencies in helping maladjusted children, the elderly, the ill and destitute, servicemen, handicapped children and adults and disaster victims.

Themes stressed in the movie picture were that "everybody needs everybody" and that a single gift to the United Fund "works many wonders" by giving hope to those who lack the hope.

Aided by UF Agencies Kolesa related episodes in his life in which there was direct contact with the Red Cross, USO, Salvation Army, church organizations and Boy Scouts, and cited the work of the Family Service Agency.

He was introduced by William F. Winter, program chairman. A guest at the luncheon was John Solenberger, executive director of the Tri-Cities United Fund.

President Will Radman presided, and Frank Pijan inducted Eli Solomon, a Madison businessman, as a new member of the Rotary club.

It was decided to cancel the Oct. 23 meeting and to meet jointly Oct. 22 with the Granite City Rotary club, which has arranged as the speaker Cong. Melvin Price. Location will be the Rose Bowl.

B&PW Names Miss Lynch As 'Woman of the Month'

Miss Mary Frances Lynch was chosen "Woman of the Month" at a dinner meeting of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club last night at the Rose Bowl.

Miss Lynch, a native of Granite City, attended Lindwood College in St. Charles, Mo., for two years and was graduated from Illinois University at a home economist major. She also holds a degree in Library Science and has been in the teaching profession for 40 years.

Miss Lynch is currently serving as librarian at the Granite City high school.

She is a past president of the Illinois State Library Association and is a member of the Granite City Scholarship Foundation. The high school Alumni has set up a book foundation in her name.

A member of the B&PW club for 20 years, Miss Lynch also is a member of First United Presbyterian Church, having served as an elder and now as deaconess.

The theme of last night's meeting was "personal development."

Mr. and Mrs. Herring of the Herring Floral shop demonstrated flower arranging to 50 club members and furnished the centerpieces for the dinner tables.

Five new members were accepted. They were Fay Briggs, Madeline Rhodes, Ruth Mc-

Gary, Elaine Prince and Carolyn Mooshegan.

Oct. 16 will be civic participation night at the club dinner and the topic will be "Know Your Men." It will be presented by three members of different organizations in Granite City.

Pauline Weir will serve as chairman at the meeting.

Griffith Tells Police He Would Try More Cases

"You and I know that this is a sorry record and it directly affects your reputation and prestige," R. W. Griffith Jr., Republican nominee for Madison county state attorney, said today in a voluminous report to "all law enforcement officers in the county."

Felony convictions decreased from 125 in 1966 to 90 in 1967 and 58 in the first half of 1968, the candidate charged. Of these, probation total 56, 41 and 33. He said he is distributing copies of the report to police personally or by mail.

His report showed 10 dismissals and acquittals in 1966, the same in 1967 and 64 in the first half of this year, adding that this does not include the many hundreds of felony arrests that are disposed of through compromise in cases, through reduction of charges or at preliminary hearings.

"If your profession is to achieve the status it deserves, the public must know that you are not a lawbreaker or a lawbreaker's friend," Griffith asserted.

Assaults Repeated Following Arrests. Griffith said that no matter what effort you put forth, it requires a state's attorney who can and will put an offender in jail, an attorney who won't always reduce a charge in exchange for a guilty plea, and a judge who will not stand idly by without a recommendation when a defendant who has been in jail three or four times asks for probation."

Pledging an immediate revision of policies if elected, the candidate said that the Granite City attorney said, "If the protection for our citizens couldn't be better, I would never seek this office at the sacrifice it entails."

"No felony case will be dismissed or reduced without a conference between the state's attorney's office and the arresting officer."

"If a defendant is indicted he will be tried. Conferences between the state's attorney's office and the arresting officer will be held prior to trial. Police officers will not be left wondering whether or not a case has been dismissed or whether a case is in jeopardy."

"The state's attorney's office has not tried enough felony cases. I will stay in practice. You and I are going to get some practice."

Handle From Start to End. "In the future, and in every felony case, there will be one assistant state's attorney who is an experienced trial lawyer, to handle each case individually from beginning to end."

"The state's attorney's office needs a professional police officer or investigator, even at the expense of an assistant, to cooperate with and to correct the activities of the different police departments and the state's attorney's office."

Griffith added, "A sensible law enforcement program must include jail for repeated offenders to accomplish what fines, probation and a slap on the wrist will not. The present 'soft approach' has made every man's family insecure and has brought both your profession and mine as at attorney into dispute."

"A knowledge of a sureness of prosecution and forthcoming penalty deters criminals and prevents the spread of fear and unhealthy security among our citizens. Together I believe that we can improve this situation. 'Law and order' goes beyond party lines."

17 Take Part in 3-Day Witnesses Convention

Quid-Quads played a major role in conducting a three-day Jehovah's Witnesses assembly during this week in Edwardsville, it was reported by Angelo Scaglione, 1936 Joy avenue, Reynolds 54, Old Township road, 1321 at a session addressed by Joseph D. Wengert, district supervisor.

Convention delegates and participants in door-to-door ministry included Mrs. Georgia Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dayton and daughters, Barbara and Nancy, Mrs. Angelo Bruno and sons, Douglas and Gregory, Mrs. Claude Downs and daughters, Karen and Kathy, Elmer Zeigler, Chester Baron, Mrs. Elmer and Mrs. Violet Leonard and daughter, Sherri Jeffries.

The Bible was stressed as a solution to present U. S. social problems. Thirty-two new members were baptized, and Wengert told the gathering, "The Bible is an expression of God's deep love for us. By means of it, Jehovah tells us about Him, self, the things we need to know to please Him and how we can gain everlasting life."

MORE ABOUT Petitions council membership is sought under Section 5-2.2 of the Illinois Municipal Code of 1961, providing that the total of less than 100,000 population may restrict the number of aldermen to one-third of the total authorized by the code.

The petitions also point out that a reduction of eight aldermen from the present council total of 16 members would result in an annual savings of $15,000 to the city.

Council Ignored Petitions Council members did not discuss the petitions during Monday night's session, although Mayor Partway remarked that he had signed one of the petition "11 times before I realized what I was doing."

The mayor has been having problems with 11 aldermen. Briefly discussed Monday night was Alderman Fry's suit against the council to demand redistricting of the city's wards and a cutback to seven. Alderman Robertson asked the status of the suit, and Fry replied that it was being possibly may be set for next Monday to hear stipulations concerning population counts for Granite City. "It is tentatively set if Judge I. H. Streeter is back on the bench Monday. He's been ill," Fry told the council.

Biederman Employees Continue to Picket Retail sales clerks of the Biederman Furniture Co., continue to picket 18 stores owned by the company, including the Granite City store at 3675 Nameoki road.

A company supervisor said today that a federal mediator has been called in to negotiate the dispute, which involves in employees. No new negotiating sessions, so far have been scheduled, the spokesman said. Members of Retail Store Employees Union, Local 435, are picketing the Granite City store.

Showboat Tavern Closed Pending License Action

Closing of the Showboat Tavern, 400 Main street, was ordered yesterday by Venice police who said they learned the tavern was operating in spite of a police order that it remain closed until an application for a liquor license transfer was approved by the city council.

At the same time police arrested Dave Hileman, 32, who gave the tavern as his home address, on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Police Chief John Essington said that when he learned the tavern had opened for business, he telephoned the tavern in an attempt to talk with the former operators, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman. Essington said

Hileman answered the telephone and in subsequent conversation became abusive and used foul language.

Chief Essington went to the tavern, arrested Hileman and ordered the place closed until the matter is acted upon by the city council which is scheduled to meet tomorrow night.

Essington said the tavern was leased recently by the Hoffmans to Beulah Presley who applied on Sept. 6 for a transfer of the liquor license to her name. The police chief said he informed the Hoffmans the tavern was to remain closed until the license transfer was acted upon. Instead, he said, the place opened for business.

Hileman posted $50 cash bond pending a magistrate hearing.

Suspension of Bridge Employee Considered

Venice city and bridge officials are studying a complaint filed by a St. Louis woman regarding language used by the collector Sept. 15, Mayor John E. Lee told the Press-Record today.

The incident is given by the motorist in The Forum column on page 36.

Dr. Lee said the employee has been identified from a description given by the woman and from information on the city-owned McKinley Bridge.

"We're determining whether such language was used, and it will not be allowed," the mayor said. He added that no hearing is planned, but that the investigation which is being made will go beyond the collector's version of what happened. He denies cursing.

While noting that the investigation has not been completed, Dr. Lee said that the employee has been the subject of other complaints in the past. If the facts warrant it, the collector will be suspended in an effort to change his attitude in dealing with the public, the mayor commented.

Robert Walters, Altam, campaign director for Ogilvie in 29 southwestern Illinois counties, will introduce Ogilvie.

N&W RR Points to Lack of Passengers

Norfolk & Western Railroad announced today the declining passenger travel is reflected in the number of Quad-City riders getting on and off the Cannon Ball trains here.

During the first six months of 1968, the number of passengers getting on the northbound No. 304 train at Granite City was 1.90 on an average per day. There was an average of slightly more than none per day getting off.

Granite City passengers taking the southbound No. 301 averaged slightly more than one half a person per day during the first half of the year. Arriving in the city on No. 301 was an average of 2.14 per day.

A spokesman for the railroad said the number of riders on the trains has declined about 20% since a year ago, he said. The Cannon Ball trains travel daily between Detroit and St. Louis. The annual operation of the Cannon Ball trains is expected to total about $500,000 by the end of this year, the N&W reported.

The railroad said the trains are now stopping at some stations for less than an average of one passenger a day.

Man Hit by Train in 'Fair' Condition

Raymond Rogers, 54, of 111 Meredith street, Venice, was in fair condition today after he was struck by a Norfolk & Western train on tracks along the 300 block of State street in Madison, about 9 p.m. yesterday.

Madison police said Rogers apparently was struck as he was crossing the track and was dragged about ten feet. He suffered head injuries. He was taken to the hospital where he was identified from papers for him.

R. H. Rash, engineer, said he had seen a woman cross State street, but did not see Rogers until he noticed something along the tracks by the side of the engine. He said he stopped the train immediately.

Gasoline Siphoned

Edward Brinkley, 2729 Grand avenue, reported at 8:10 p.m. Wednesday that someone in a red sports car damaged the gasoline filler cover on his 1961 auto and d siphoned gasoline while it was parked at the Calvary Baptist Church, 3000 Washington avenue.

Flamer Joins SIU-SW To Coach Cross-Country

John Flamer, an SIU alum, has been named coach of the new intercollegiate cross-country running team to be formed at the SIU-SW campus.

Flamer, who graduated from the Carbondale campus in 1964, twice held membership on the SIU national cross-country team. He was a member of the NAIA team in 1960 and the NCAA College Division team in 1961.

He comes to the campus in a dual capacity. Besides his coaching duties, he is an assistant to Chancellor John S. Rendleman for community affairs. In addition, he is the Equal Opportunity Compliance Officer for both campuses on all federally-funded building projects.

Flamer joined the SIU staff in 1965 as a member of its Breckinridge Job Corps Center. At the center, he helped set up the health, physical education, recreation and driver education programs. Later, he was promoted to supervisor of the public affairs department in the community relations for the Job Corps Center.

He has had experience also as a public school administrator, an industrial relations man, and as a principal-teacher for the Illinois Youth Commission.

He is completing graduate work in recreation and outdoor education at SIU-SW.

He and his wife have seven children, including two sets of twins. His wife is the former Mary Holder of Carbondale.

Intercollegiate Schedule

The Cougars of SIU-SW will

begin intercollegiate competition in cross-country this fall. Six meets are scheduled as well as participation in the National AAU (junior) competition in Chicago Nov. 23.

The season opener will be Oct. 5 at Millikin University.

Other meets for the Cougars are at the University of Missouri (St. Louis), Oct. 8, at Murray State, Oct. 19, at Vincennes University, Oct. 22, and an Illinois state meet at Glen Ellyn Nov. 2.

A tentative home meet is slated Oct. 26 on SIU's Homecoming weekend.

Makeup of the squad will not be determined until after the fall quarter.

The Granite City high school cross-country team came home victorious from Wood River Tuesday evening, downing the Oilers 20-45 on their two-mile 145-yard course.

This was the longest distance that the Warriors have run in a dual meet this season. Area schools are beginning to increase their courses to a 2.5-mile length, now recommended by the Illinois High School Association.

Don Bingham of the Oilers, one of the best runners in this area in the view of Warrior Coach Dick Harmon, won the race in a time of 11:11. Warrior Steve Harris was second in 11:34, Mike Allen third in 11:39, Danny Burris fourth in 11:55, Jim McShaffery fifth in 11:48, Ricky Rose sixth in 11:55 and Ralph Rojas seventh in 11:56.

So far this season, the Warriors have won two dual meets and lost one, and won a tri-annual.

Punt, Pass, Kick Contest For This Area To Be Oct. 13

Ford dealers again are planning national Punt, Pass and Kick competition, and the local contest will be held at the Granite City high school football field Sunday, Oct. 13, at 2 p.m.

Every boy wishing to enter the contest is to have his entry blank filled out and submitted before Oct. 5.

Any boy between the ages of eight and 13 is eligible for the national competition. A seven-year-old who will be eight before Jan. 5 is eligible to compete with the eight-year-olds, but any boy who is 13 and turns 14 before that date is not eligible.

Boys are to register on official forms at any participating Ford dealership. The local place to register is B. E. Hohlt Motors, 1837 Madison avenue. Each may enter only once, and each boy's parent or guardian must countersign the entry form.

Six Levels of Contest
There will be six levels of competition — local, zone, district, area, division and national. Local winners will be determined by the scores achieved at the GCHS competition.

Winners will be sent to advance upward through the various levels of the contest. After district competition, winners will be sent to area competition in 16 National Football League cities. Area competitors will then vie to determine 12 division winners — six representing the Eastern NFL division (one in each age group) and six representing the NFL Western division.

National competition will be held at the NFL Playoff game Jan. 5, 1969. Six national winners — one in each age group — will be determined from the scores.

All ties at any level will be played off on the spot.

Rules for Judging
Each boy will compete in three categories — punting, passing and kicking (using a kicking tee). Judges will score one point for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly, minus one point for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of a center line.

When punting and passing, a three- or four-step running process will be allowed, but entrants must not step over the starting or base line. If he does step over, the measurement will be made from the last step taken.

No special footwear may be worn for local competition — only ordinary street shoes or sneakers. However, all boys are required to wear sneakers in district, area and national judging.

Boys aged eight to 10 will use a junior size football for the competition and the remaining ages will use a regulation size ball.

Whoever a boy registers, he will receive a free booklet of tips written by Green Bay's star passer, Bart Starr, the Atlanta Falcons' punting specialist, Billy Lott, and the St. Louis Cardinals' kicking specialist and top NFL scorer, Jim Bakken.

The booklet includes exercises for better physical fitness oriented to boys of PP&K ages. In addition to the booklet, each registrant receives a lapel pin.

British Accent This Weekend at SIU-SW

SIU-SW is haunted this weekend by a paradox. Soccer Coach Bob Guelker and his charges, along with students and faculty, are preparing a warm reception for the English soccer team coming in today for the last leg of its American tour. On the other hand, they are girding for a head-to-head battle with the visitors on the new soccer field Saturday at 4 p.m.

"Naturally, we would like to win," Guelker said, "because we are the ones who originally thought up the idea of bringing English soccer players to the U.S."

Little did Guelker realize that he would help start a steamroller that, so far, has flattened every American college team it has faced. Since landing in New York Sept. 8, St. Louis's Exeter, England, has amassed victories over East Stroudsburg of Pennsylvania, Hartwick of New York and Fairleigh-Dickinson of New Jersey by scores of 5-0, 5-1 and 10-3.

"I've talked to a couple of the football coaches here," Guelker related. "They say this English team is sensational."

Soon after their arrival by plane today at 5:30 p.m., the English players will be spirited to Camp Warren Lewis north of Alton for a dinner and social gathering with more than 125 SIU-SW students. The young people have assembled there for a two-day orientation program, which will prepare them for student leadership assignments during the school opening next week.

On Friday, the soccer visitors are scheduled to tour St. Louis under sponsorship of the SIU-SW student hospitality committee and Gamma Sigma Sigma, a service sorority. Cougar soccer players also will accompany their guests when they visit the Gateway Arch and Forest Park.

Tomorrow evening, the university's physical education faculty will hold a banquet in the River Room of the University Center. Players of both teams are invited.

Following the match Saturday on the new soccer field west of the Gateway Arch, players and students will assemble at the University Center's recreation area for an evening of barbecue and other activities.

The Brits will leave Sunday morning from Lambert Airport.

Venice High Plans Cross-Country Team

The Venice high school Red Devils, who in some years have a first place baseball team, instead will compete in cross-country running this fall.

Coach Bill Ollendorf reports, "While we have been having baseball, all other schools in our area have either been playing football or running cross-country."

The Venice school has confirmed that it will not be a member of the Madison-Clinton-Macoupin Counties Conference any longer. The reason for the switch to an independent schedule is a desire to play more schools with enrollments as large as or larger than Venice.

A flag football is being played by boys in Venice grade school on a competitive basis.

No cross-country schedule has yet been announced.

Injunction Ends Mass Picketing At Dow Co. Plant

About 250 salaried employees at the Madison plant of Dow Chemical Co. today ended their jobs this morning as striking steelworkers limited pickets at both plant gates under terms of a temporary injunction order issued in circuit court at Edwardsville yesterday afternoon.

A company spokesman said production was resumed with the return of salaried employees and supervisory personnel who had been kept out of the plant since Monday by mass picketing activities of striking members of United Steelworkers Local 4804.

The temporary restraining order limited to six the number of pickets the strikers may station at the main gate at College and Weaver streets in Venice, and provided that not more than two pickets may be stationed at the secondary plant entrance.

The order was prepared by agreement between Robert Broderick, attorney for Dow Chemical Co., and Sheldon Weinhaus, St. Louis lawyer for the United Steelworkers, in a two-hour chamber session with Circuit Judge John D. Daily of McLennanboro, who had been called in to handle the injunction proceedings. There was no hearing and no witnesses were called.

Plea Filed Tuesday

The injunction plea was filed in circuit court Tuesday afternoon and was directed against 11 respondents named as officers of the union and individually, Local 4804, its officers and workers, the United Steelworkers of America, and George F. Becker, individually.

A representative of the United Steelworkers of America.

The complaint alleged mass picketing by striking union members had prevented non-union employees from entering the plant and thus endangered plant facilities which must be constantly maintained and inspected.

The injunction order also required striking union members from "interfering with or harassing or obstructing the plant in the conduct of its business," and from interfering with "any officer, agent or employee of plaintiff, or any member of their families." It also prohibits "violence, threats of violence, force or intimidation."

Becker said he would seek approval of the order by Judge Daily that "the union will abide fully with all terms of the order."

No Meeting Set

Becker said that no further negotiation meetings would be held between company and union officials "because there is no need of a meeting until the company is ready to abandon its efforts to take away seniority provisions and job security clauses we already have in our contract."

The union representative said that a company version that no further meetings were to be held until the union requested such a meeting through a U. S. mediator is untrue.

"Negotiations broke off last week (Sept. 13) with the understanding that we would meet again when the company dropped its demands for watered-down seniority and job security clauses. Until they do that, we haven't anything to negotiate," he said.

Delegates to the Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council unanimously endorsed the steelworkers strike during a regular meeting in the Labor Temple last night. The delegates voted to make a cash checkbook drive for the strike fund and urged the 59 union locals represented in the trades council to take similar action.

Edwin F. Reiske, secretary of the trades council, was instructed to send a telegram to Cong. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) voicing the council's objections to the company's continued production with supervisory personnel. Members of Steelworkers Local 4804 are scheduled to meet in special session at the Labor Temple at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Trades Council Backs Teachers, Urges Meeting

The Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council gave unanimous approval last night to a "Fact and Fiction" version of issues involved in the strike of Madison teachers. The report was presented to the council by Bernard Long, president of Local 780 of the American Teachers Federation, according to Edwin Reiske, Trades Council president.

Long stated as a fact that the Madison school board is bringing in "strikebreakers" in an attempt to destroy Local 780, "the quality of education in Madison schools. The fictional part of this issue," he said, "is that the board wants to open schools and get schools in operation." His report was entitled "Union-Busting with a Capital B."

He said also it is fact that Ray Page, Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction, has stated that an attempt to open schools without a full complement of certified teachers will place in jeopardy the district's state aid. He described as fictional the school board claims that it has a full complement of teachers to open schools Monday. Long also reported on five other issues.

The trades council voted unanimously full support of the teachers strike and criticized use of substitutes and defecting union members as "scab."

Edwin F. Reiske, secretary of the council, this morning sent a telegram to Madison school board members urging them to meet during the week in an effort to resolve the problem before attempting to open schools Monday.

MORE ABOUT Teachers Hired

are to be completed at a regular meeting of the board at 7:30 p.m. today.

Teachers absent

None of the teachers appeared at the Tuesday session, though summoned to do so by the board, on the advice of their attorney.

Carr asked that subpoenas served upon the teachers to appear as witnesses be dropped. He also entered an appearance for Bernard Long, president of the local, and asked for a jury trial.

The teachers' attorney said the teachers could not be ordered to court without being paid the necessary witness fees and mileage expenses in advance as required by state law, and that they could not be held in contempt of court.

Seven Teachers Sign

Carr said the subpoenas forced seven teachers to appear in court, but they would not have to appear in court. He claimed that the school board was abusing the processes of this court "and was attempting to 'infect' their will on these people, that is why I am signing this affidavit."

Gitchoff, who later said it was for wish of the board to have the teachers held in contempt nor that they be jailed, argued that the teachers' refusal to appear was a violation of the statute, they would be paid the witness fees.

Long called the proceedings a mockery.

Judge Meyer said he saw no harassment in the case at all. He denied the motion to quash but agreed that the teachers could not be held in contempt for not appearing.

He demanded a jury trial for Long, Carr said a large number of facts were alleged in the complaint, but Carr said the jury should determine the facts. Gitchoff argued that a jury trial was not warranted, that the board was seeking only a declaration of rights.

Grant Request

Judge Meyer granted the request for a jury trial. Carr was ready to call a jury Tuesday afternoon to hear the case.

He also attempted to file a complaint against the school board and "certain other defendants (teachers)."

At that point, however, Gitchoff dismissed Carr as a defendant in the case, eliminating the process of a trial, and the judge denied the motion to file the counterclaim.

While on the witness stand Dragich reviewed developments in the case, including the letter tendering mass resignations on June 27, an oral reaffirmation of the resignations by Carr at a meeting with the board on Aug. 13 and the absence of teachers when school opened on Aug. 26.

Bluff told the court that it appears the teachers do not want to go to work for the district.

Among others attending the hearing was John Roark, an official of the Illinois Federation of Teachers, who observed the proceedings.

Teachers Meet

Following a teachers meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Labor Temple, Carr doubted that there will be a sufficient number of teachers to conduct classes, though he expects schools to open. He said there have been only 10 to 20 defections from the original 85 union members, and that the vast majority is standing firm and will not be in the classroom.

However, Dragich Wednesday afternoon reported that 42 teachers with tenure had signed contracts, in addition to the 20 new teachers, and that with substitute teachers the district will have a full complement of teachers in the classrooms on Monday.

SIU-SW Staff Urges Greater Variety of Academic Areas

Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus faculty told members of a committee of the State Board of Higher Education that the new campus has the facilities and the personnel for degree programs in public administration.

A public hearing was held on the campus by Committee T of the Illinois State Board of Higher Education. Representatives from two other educational institutions and from several municipal and planning agencies in the area also testified.

Committee T is operating under Title III of the Illinois Master Plan for Higher Education and is interested primarily in professional education. Robert Smith, president of Northern University and chairman of the committee, presided at the session.

Speaking for the local campus were nine faculty members representing a wide variety of academic areas. Each cited current programs and present personnel are associated with public administration.

M. M. Sappenfield, associate professor of government from the SIU campus at Carbondale, told the committee that no single program in public administration can meet the present and predicted needs of the state in Illinois.

He cited current programs at the Carbondale campus and stated that at this time courses in public administration are offered on the bachelor's, master's and doctoral level.

Tentative recommendations outlined by the committee include establishment of a Illinois Conference on Education for Public Administration; establishment of a master's degree program in public administration at the new Springfield university; outlining provisions for other programs in the area of public administration, including in-service training, extension courses, degree programs and other special services.

Endorsement for current programs at SIU-SW which assist in public affairs programs came from Dean Pieper of the faculty of Business and Urban Development Office, Chicago; and Wallace Altus of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Agency.

Long, in response to a question concerning the breakdown of negotiations, said that the Madison has requested new negotiations sessions, but the school board has refused.

Long said also that officials of the Madison teachers union plan to seek a resolution of consensus against the Madison school board at the AFT-CIO convention in Springfield next week. He pointed out that several members of the school board are members of labor unions.

Deny Board Claims

The officials denied the school board's right to hire substitute teachers and Long maintained that school board claims that they have contracts with 30 teachers are untrue. He said only 18 teachers have left the union, including six that walked out of a union session Tuesday afternoon.

Both Well and Long expressed confidence that settlement of the East St. Louis teachers strike early this morning will have considerable effect upon the attitude of the Madison school board.

The settlement reached in East St. Louis, it was reported, will cost the school district $850,000 per year. Some members of the board said efforts to pay the additional salaries will bankrupt the school district.

The Madison public library began extended evening hours this week, according to Mrs. Austin Lewis, head librarian, who said today the facility will be open each Monday and Thursday from noon until 8 p.m.

Normal operating hours—noon until 6 p.m.—will be continued each Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, she reported. The library usually begins evening sessions with the start of the new school year in early September.

Summer Quarter Dean List at Carbondale

The summer quarter was recognizably successful for 792 undergraduate students at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale — they made the Dean's List for academic excellence. Doing so required a grade average of 4.25 or better (5.0 = straight A).

This was 7.6 per cent of the 10,317 students enrolled for the summer quarter. Of students on the Dean's List, 225 or 28 per cent achieved straight A averages for the summer. On the list is Camille Malpocker, 2633 Madison avenue.

Omar and The Suitmaker

When you see Omar Sharif take on the flamboyant style of Nicky Arnstein in the new movie "Funny Girl", you'll know that he has the kind of flair and presence to inspire a great suitmaker. In fact, Worst-Tex was inspired enough to design a special collection for Omar Sharif. Here Omar is elegantly informal in the shaped, giant plaid sportcoat with precisely coordinated slacks. Just one example of the suits, sportcoats, slacks and outercoats from the collection.

We have arranged to have this special Worst-Tex collection available for you. Once you see it, we think you'll want Omar's suitmaker to be yours, too. Sportcoat $100. Slacks $85.00.

Easing GC House Trailer Controls Proposed

A recommendation that the city ease its restrictions on location of house trailers throughout the city was made during Monday night's Granite City council session by First Ward Alderman Moerlien.

He called for preparation of an amendment to the control ordinance, permitting the placement of house trailers, provided 70% of the property owners within a 300-foot radius give their consent.

Moerlien stipulated in his motion that terms of the present ordinance should be suspended pending council action on the proposed amendment. It was brought out that the city presently has three cases ready for court action concerning the possible illegality of trailers.

Procedure Questioned
Questioned by Alderman Fry was the procedure for amending the trailer control ordinance. He said the zoning code bans them on lots with homes and the city code also gives restrictions.

Nonn remarked that he felt the city code would not hold up under a court test since it was not read in its entirety when adopted by the council over 10 years ago. Fry pointed out the city presently is in the process of making changes in the zoning, based on recommendations by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Plan Commission and that perhaps it would be better to wait for the hearings.

Several aldermen said they had not yet received copies of the proposed changes. Mayor Partney said he would secure them for distribution.

Robertson asked if any city litigation was pending under the present controls, and Mayor Partney replied that he knew of none.

Alderman Robertson then asked Building Inspector Orville Deltour if the Moerlien amendment would not suspend such action.

"Don't tell me. Tell the attorney," Deltour retorted. Turning to Mayor Partney, Robertson asked him to question the building inspector about cases filed by the city.

Deltour answered, "There are three of them."

Re-entering the discussion, Moerlien said he had learned of a house trailer being placed on the rear of a lot by a recently returned Vietnam veteran and that he knew "certain people were permitted to place trailers."

Alderman Rutledge commented that house trailers were being located in the city almost daily, and that he had learned of instances where the occupant later moved into a house and then rented the trailer to make money. "This is going way out," he added.

Further objection was raised by Fry, who said that a trailer had been moved into the Sixth Ward and the city took the matter to court and the court upheld the city case. He stressed that if the zoning code is amended to permit house trailers, a public hearing should be held.

He added that in many cases, occupants of house trailers pay no taxes. "And you can't file a tax lien, for they can just hook them on a car and tow them away."

Support of Moerlien's motion was voiced by Alderman Nonn, who said he has a large number of house trailers in the Fifth Ward. "The people own their lots and we require them to take the wheels off and to connect onto city sewers. And they pay their taxes."

In the roll call vote for preparation of the ordinance, the only "no" vote was by Fry.

Speaks to Press Club

Long-Range Goals Cited By SIU-SW Chancellor

Teaching and training of a future dentist, lawyer, engineer or a high school drop-out is the primary interest and long-range goal of Southern Illinois University — Southwestern campus, Chancellor John S. Rendleman told the St. Louis Press Club this week.

He said the campus' primary concern will be teaching. "However," he added, "research will continue to be important, but neither teaching nor research should be emphasized at the expense of the other."

The enrollment will come from a broad cross section of the nation, he told the journalists, including the "disadvantaged" of the inner-city as he referred to the "Experiment in Higher Education" now under way.

Rendleman said 20 areas of graduate degrees are offered, establishment of a dental school has been approved, and division deans have been instructed to prepare proposals for doctoral programs with a target date of 1971.

Listed as goals were law and engineering schools, medical training program, a vocational training headquarters near East St. Louis and an experimental educational center at Alton. Rendleman cited the recent accomplishments of an excellent faculty in writing, research and new teaching techniques.

1212 Persons Participate in Salvation Army Activities

A total of 1212 persons attended 62 group activities sponsored by the Salvation Army during July and August. Captain Harold F. Thomas reported to members of the SA Advisory Board Tuesday evening.

Within the same two-month period, Capt. Thomas said, more than 880 participated in 20 sessions of Daily Vacation Bible school and 2390 attended a total of 96 recreational programs.

Meeting with advisory board members in the Grand Cafe, the Salvation Army office also reported that 27 individuals had 55 days of camping at Camp Minaska, Bourbon, Mo., and over 280 young people and senior citizens were involved in 16 summer outings.

Other service statistics provided by Capt. Thomas showed that 37 welfare orders were given by the Tri-City Salvation Army office; 13 meals provided; 21 additional cases received other services and assistance was furnished to 122 individuals.

Aids Servicemen

The Salvation Army League of Mercy visited Scott Air Force Base on one occasion and three other institutional visits were made to 210 individuals, the officer said, adding that representatives of the local Corps made four trips to the St. Louis Induction Center, where gift packs were distributed to 328 men and women.

Edward Stone, advisory board president, conducted the monthly business meeting, and Richard West, finance chairman, announced the Tri-Cities United Fund board had approved a request for an additional $510 to the Army's 1968 allocation.

Progress in acquiring property to construct a new Citadel in the local community was reviewed by A. C. Stiever, property committee chairman, who said that Brigadier John Paton, the Salvation Army divisional commander for Missouri and Southern Illinois, is to meet with the board to assist with further planning.

Plan Chili Supper
Capt. Thomas reported the Young People's Legion will sponsor a chili supper Friday, Oct. 4, to finance the attendance of 12 youths at the Territorial Youth Congress in Chicago, set for Nov. 1-3. More than 2000 young people are expected to attend the conference from the ten central states, he said.

Prior to adjourning, the board affirmed the Salvation Army's policy of non-discrimination, which states: "The Salvation Army, as a branch of the Church, opposes discriminatory practices related to race or national origin at all levels of operation and administration, and seeks to promote inter-group understanding and give full support to the imperatives of human and civil rights, not only at the levels of housing, education and employment, but also in the areas of culture and religion, sharing that spiritual affinity which makes all men brothers."

Debates Planned for State Atty. Candidates

A series of three debates between Democratic incumbent Leon Scroggins of Granite City and Republican R. W. Griffith of Alton, candidates for state attorney, are being arranged by their aides.

Gerald McGivern, assistant state's attorney, said plans are being made with Marshall Smith, campaign planner for Griffith, to hold the debates in Granite City, Edwardsville and Wood River.

McGivern suggested that the topics include topics as law and order in Madison county, the role of the state's attorney and other matters.

Fiesta Saturday to Mark Mexican Anniversary

Miss Ana Maria Barthing, Mexican Consul of St. Louis, will be the special guest of honor at the annual "Mexican Fiesta," to be given by the Mexican Honorary Commission of Granite City at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Venice-Madison American Legion hall.

Highlighting the fiesta will be a variety show, featuring local youngsters and adults performing specialty acts, group dances and folk songs.

Open to the public, the fiesta tickets are $2 per person at the door, or may be obtained in advance from commission members for $1.75.

Following the entertainment, music will be furnished for dancing by a Latin American ensemble. Traditional foods and other refreshments will be available, according to Steve Ortiz, commission president.

The fiesta observes the 158th anniversary of Mexico's independence, which was started Sept. 16, 1810, by a small group of patriots.

$12,536 Contract Awarded for Work On Kennedy Drive

A contract for improvement of Kennedy drive from Greenwood street to McCambridge avenue was awarded to the A. H. Seebold Co. on a low bid of $12,536 by the Madison city council Tuesday night.

The motor fuel tax project, approved by the state highway division, includes construction of bituminous road mix surface with combination concrete curbs and gutters on both sides of the street.

The bid was 13 1/2% below the engineer's estimate. The other bid was from G. H. Sternberg & Co. with a quotation of $12,601.

A recommendation by the Madison volunteer fire department to place two firemen on duty from 8 p.m. to 6 p.m. daily at the fire station was approved by the council.

The firemen had been on duty previously from midnight to 6 p.m. and were paid $15 a night. The pay rate will remain the same until appropriations are increased in next year's budget.

Appointed as a probationary fireman was Robert L. Papa, 21, of 1808 Fourth street, on the recommendation of Edward Miller, fire chief.

The council authorized patrolmen Theodore Skoklo and Anthony Turski to attend the Illinois Police Association convention in Peoria on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with expense allotments not to exceed $100 each.

New alley lights were ordered behind 1654 Second street and 1641 Seventh street.

A $200 bond with the Maryland Casualty Co. was approved for Ralph L. Beck, who was appointed as a special policeman last May.

$165,000 Settlement In Injury Lawsuit

An $165,000 out-of-court settlement of an injury suit was reached Monday by attorneys for Edward Beard, 28, of Pocahtontas, Ill., formerly of this area, and representatives of several contracting firms.

Beard, an ironworker and father of three children, "had remained unconscious almost six months and suffered extensive brain damage following a 45-foot fall from a scaffold during construction of a power plant at Coffeen, Ill., in November 1964.

The plaintiff was represented in the suit by Granite City attorneys, William L. Beatty and William W. Schooley. Among the contracting firms involved were Central Illinois Public Service, Sargeant & Lundy, Chicago, Jim Kathman & Co., and Babcock and Wilcox Co.

Charles Nelson, 43, Dies Unexpectedly

Charles E. Nelson, 43, of 1351 West Pontoon road, died unexpectedly at 5 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He had entered the hospital one hour before his death, which was attributed to a heart ailment.

Born in Dover, Tenn., he had lived here for 16 years and was employed as a truck driver for the Prairie Farm Dairy, formerly Aro-Dressel Dairy. Mr. Nelson also was a deacon of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Rophine Nelson; one son, Pico James Leslie Nelson with the U. S. Army in Germany; one daughter, Sharon Lee Nelson, 13, at home; and his mother, Mrs. Ora Nelson of Granite City.

Arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Depot Fence Damaged

Thirty feet of chain link fence at the Army Depot, along County road between the depot south gate and Merchants bridge, was torn down about 4:45 p.m. Tuesday when a car skidded on wet pavement and crashed into the fence. Venice police reported the car was driven by Ronald E. Justice, 23, East St. Louis, who told them he was headed south on County road when the car started skidding and went out of control.

Channel 9 to Present Berlin Olympic Sept. 24

As its contribution to the 1968 Olympic Year, NET is broad-casting Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 9:30 p.m., on Channel 9, will visit one of the most dramatic sports events in history, the 1936 Berlin Olympic Games.

Under the overall title of "Olympiad 1936," NET is broad-casting Leni Riefenstahl's film classic about the 1936 event, "Olympia."

The film records in great detail the Berlin Games where, in the face of Hitler's attempts to turn the event into a glorification of the Nazi race, Jesse Owens led seven American Negro stars to win gold medals in track and field.

Leni Riefenstahl, one of pre-war Germany's leading younger filmmakers, had persuaded Hitler to let her document the Berlin spectacle. Her film, made with great resources and incorporating many technical innovations, is considered one of the finest motion pictures of all time.

"Olympia" won the 1937 Grand Prize and Gold Medal, Exposition Universelle, Paris; first prize at the 1958 Biennale at the "world's best film"; the 1938 "Polaire" prize of Sweden; the 1938 Prize of Honor from the Greek government; the 1943 Olympic Gold Medal from the International Olympic Committee; and in 1956 was named a Hollywood survey as one of the ten best films ever made.

"Olympia" is not only having its American television premiere on the NET network, but is also NET's first major production dealing with sports.

NET will broadcast "Olympia" in four parts over a four-week period. Each part will contain commentary by film critic Andrew Sarris and author and sports expert Dick Schaap.

BIRTHDAY GATHERING

Mrs. Jackie Watkins, 2943 Edwards street, entertained several young people in her home with a party in honor of the ninth birthday of her daughter, Gail, Tuesday afternoon.

Following the opening of gifts, the afternoon was spent playing games, including "hot potato." Prizes were awarded to Laura Arbogast, Sharon Choclet, Candice Werth and Donna Maykott.

The color theme was in shades of green. A cake decorated with chocolate icing and green candles, ice cream and hot chocolate were served to the hostess to the guest of honor and her sisters, Kay and Nancy, Corina Kuhn, Becky DeForest and the prize winners.

A family dinner was served later in the evening for Gail and her brother, Michael, who will observe his birthday today.

HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Diane Hill, 415 Wabash avenue, who was born Aug. 26 at St. Elizabeth Hospital, were honored at a "pre-view party" and cradle shower Sunday afternoon in her home given by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Glenda Scholebo and Mrs. Kathy Scholebo.

The guests of honor received many gifts, and a social hour of games filled the remainder of the afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Scholebo, maternal grandmother, and Mrs. Norma Jean Smith and Mrs. Connie Fisher. A dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses to those mentioned and Mrs. Helen Hill, paternal grandmother, and Mrs. Lynn Krug.

BROWNIES PLAY HIKE

Brownie Troop 889, sponsored by the Webster PTA, held a weekly meeting at the school Tuesday with the leaders, Mrs. Valara Schothiede and Mrs. Anita Moody. The meeting was called to order with a flag ceremony and the troop recited in unison the flag pledge and Brownie promise.

In preparation for an investiture ceremony, the girls worked on leaves of good deeds. Plans were made for a nature hike to Wilson Park in lieu of a regular meeting Sept. 24. Mrs. Schothiede stressed the need for return of permission slips.

A singalong was held, and the meeting closed with a "dignified tunnel." Present were Pamela Allen, Susan Buehler, Marge Hill, Rebecca Schorlebo, Debra Hanna, April Howell, Robin Pilch, Susan Prokopick, Sheri Lynn Ross, Gritina, Donna Kay Smith, Patty Smith, Robyn Starks, Lori Ann Taylor, Rebecca Waltemate, Carol Weber and guests, Candy Evans and Patty Moody.

A discussion was held on a get-together at Mrs. Lee's home to bake cupcakes for the tea and to apply the baking lesson toward cooking badge requirements. Tentative plans

Eagle Rank to Dennis Gillie

Dennis L. Gillie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Gillie, 24 Oaklawn drive, received the Eagle Scout award, highest Boy Scout rank, during an exploratory post ceremony last night at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon), 9824 Bunton road, Fairview.

A junior at Granite City high school, the Eagle joined scouting in 1960 as a cub, joined a troop in 1963 and became an explorer last year. He is currently the president of Explorer Post 507 and a brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow, scout honor camping group.

The show will start at noon and all Saddle Clubs, or those who have horses, are invited to enter the competition. The speed races will be electrically timed, and the judging for the show will be by Fred Patterson of St. Clair, Mo. There will be a high point trophy and ribbons. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Refreshments will be sold at the grounds.

A fun show is to be held at the arena this Sunday, at 1 p.m. with ribbons to be awarded in races.

The members will attend an overnight trailride on Sept. 28 and 29 in Godfrey, Ill., and another on Oct. 12 and 13 in Greenfield, Ill.

Future activities for October included a hayride and winter roast and a rummage sale.

Gillie was cited at the ceremony as having a desire to be of service to fellow men and to be of all possible assistance to the scouting program.

He was described as exemplifying the explorer code, which emphasizes the belief that "America's strength lies in her trust in God and in the courage and strength of her people." It calls for a "personal sense of honor," treasuring the American heritage, preserving the dignity and worth of others, fostering fair play and good will and seeking "truth in all things and adventure in the frontiers of our changing world."

Tentative plans were made for the annual Christmas program, in which the younger children will participate, and the Christmas play.

we care

It takes an expert to grade beef!

In our great country we're lucky.

Our government trains and employs experts...men who inspect and grade beef at hundreds of locations throughout the nation. They protect you...and retailers, like us.

That's why A&P is happy there's a U.S. government inspector on the premises of our meat plant serving this area.

Also important are A&P's own beef experts.

Their job is to see to it that A&P Beef measures up to our own "SUPER-RIGHT" quality standards...

standards which don't exactly fit our government's grading categories.

For instance, some beef graded U.S. Choice

just doesn't meet our "SUPER-RIGHT" specifications.

No wonder we don't hesitate to guarantee that the "SUPER-RIGHT" Beef you buy will be as flavorful and tender as you think it should be, or your money back.

So, you don't have to become an expert to choose great beef for your family...just shop A&P!

Are you less than proud of your lawn?

If you are, right now is the naturally right time to do something about it. Days are growing shorter, nights cooler, and the weather pattern is right for grass. So follow Nature's lead and fix up your lawn now — while all the odds are in your favor.

You can easily upgrade the kind of grass you have

If you're dissatisfied with the kind of grass you have, try seeding a box of WINDSOR right into your existing lawn. WINDSOR is the improved variety of Kentucky bluegrass that has become so popular for lawns and golf courses. Grows especially thick and luxuriant. Thrives in summer's heat and looks magnificent.

Fertilize now to make your grass multiply itself

This is the time when every lawn needs fertilizer to bounce back from the ravages of summer and to build up strength for winter. Best way we know is with TURF BUILDER, the fertilizer that makes grass multiply itself. Spread it any time. Will not burn grass or harm grass seed. How about this week end?

Study Habit Hints Listed in Booklet

To paraphrase a current television commercial, it's not how long you study, but how you study long. A booklet, "Study Hints," published at Southern Illinois University, says scholastic success depends not only upon the amount of time spent studying, but also on the manner in which the student spends that time. "Studying is a habit that must be developed; it must be practiced and learned just as any other skill," the booklet explains.

Distributed by the SIU general studies division, "Study Hints" provides guidelines for improving study habits. These include: Plan study periods and recreation periods so they don't conflict. Adapt study period length to the type and difficulty of the material to be studied. Place each study period as close to its class recitation as possible. This should assist one in recalling additional points brought out in class discussion and provides the best time to review and add to class notes, according to the booklet.

SIU Allocated $193,166 For Loans to Students

Eastern Illinois University has been allotted $193,166 for operation of its National Defense Student Loan program for the current year. The grant came from the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, division of student financial aid. Institutional matching funds and collections from past loans brings the total loan potential for the year to $266,000, according to Ross Lyman, director of financial aid. Last year, 505 students borrowed a total of $197,583 from the fund, Lyman said. To be eligible for loans, students must show a genuine need for the money, must be enrolled full-time or half-time, and must meet the academic and social standards set by the university.

Teens with Problems Prefer Parent Advice

Despite talk of a "generation gap" and "alienated youth," teenagers still value the advice of their parents when problems arise in their lives.

This was the finding of a study just concluded by two Southern Illinois University researchers, Michael Altekruze, assistant professor, and Jo Ann Belluci, graduate fellow, in the SIU department of guidance and educational psychology.

Their report, titled "Where Do Students Go For Help," was published in the fall issue of the quarterly publication of the Illinois Guidance and Personnel Association.

In a survey among 378 students in grades 8 through 12 at the University junior-senior high school in Bloomington, Ind., the researchers asked the students to rank in order of preference which of nine persons they would turn to if a problem should arise in each of three areas: educational, vocational, and personal.

Possible choices listed were: favorite teacher, father and mother, father, mother, brother and sister, counselor, good friend, minister and grandparent.

"Father and mother" was the clear first choice of students in questions relating to vocational ("counselor" ranked second), while the parents scored a very close second to "counselor" in educational matters. "Mother" was a close second choice to "good friend" ("father" was fifth) in personal concerns.

Ranking next to last in preference of students in all three problem areas was "minister," while "grandparent" was in last place.

12,998 Enrolled at ISU for Fall Semester

Illinois State University, at the close of regular registration for the fall semester, reported an enrollment of 12,998 students with 100 to 125 more expected during late registration this coming week.

The total is an increase of 18,235, or 2004 more than the 10,994 enrolled as of the same time a year ago. ISU's final enrollment for the fall of 1967 was 11,702.

Undergraduates account for 11,643 of the total 12,998, with 1355 graduate students. Last year's graduate total at the close of regular registration was 1185.

Classes for the fall semester began on Friday.

HOSTESS UNIFORM

An example of TWA's 1968 winter wardrobe, modeled by hostess supervisor Ann McMurry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. McMurry, 2003 Garfield Avenue. She is based in Chicago. The look is a mix of uniforms, as by light gold, poppy or green ensembles with complementary accessories which hostesses may choose to wear and how they please to add color to airport and airline attire.

Coolidge PTA Meeting Set for Monday Night

James Dumont, principal of Coolidge junior high school, will discuss the topic, "Know Your School," at 8 p.m. Monday, when Coolidge Parent-Teacher Association hold its initial meeting of the 1968-69 school year in the school cafeteria.

Parents of all Coolidge students are urged to participate in Monday's program, with a special invitation issued to parents whose youngsters are newly enrolled in the building, Martin Love, PTA president, said today. He added that a open discussion period and an explanation of regulations and curriculum at the junior high level are planned by the school principal.

Love told members of the PTA executive board during a special meeting earlier this week that more volunteers are needed to assist in future PTA events at the school and that efforts to revitalize the Coolidge unit will be made this fall.

Board members also reviewed proposed activities, which will include an open house in November, a membership drive and special programs involving the student council and legislation.

GC Rotary Project Funds Benefit Entire Community

After many months of planning, the Modern Living Show, sponsored by the Granite City Rotary Club, is set to start at 8 p.m. today in the Wilson Park ice-rink pavilion.

The four-day show will feature a varied array of exhibits, and through a 25-cent admission fee will help the local men's service club achieve its latest goal in a series of noteworthy benefits to youth and to the community. Proceeds from the Modern Living Show will be used by the Rotarians to renovate and refurbish the auditorium of the YMCA. Proposed changes in the 30x75-foot room include a lowered ceiling, decorative chandeliers and new window coverings.

Dating back to 1953, the Granite City Rotary Club has undertaken 13 other different benefit projects in this area. Prior to the current show, more than $30,000 has been raised for charitable purposes.

Past benefit programs:

1953—Completely furnished a kitchen at YMCA, $3,000; purchased a truck for the Boy Scouts, $750.

1954—Constructed a chapel for Boy Scouts at Camp Sunnen, $1800; and built a road into a camp for Girl Scouts, $1500.

1959—Purchased four air-conditioners for the YMCA meeting rooms, $1600; and purchased an organ for Granite City high school, $2000.

1960—Purchased furniture for the Quad-City Mental Health Clinic, $1500.

1961—Installed acoustical ceiling in the YMCA meeting room, $800.

1963—Secured two police dogs and paid expenses of a related training program for the Granite City police department, $2000.

1964—Purchased a station wagon and inhalator for Granite City fire department, $4100.

1965—Purchased an electroencephalograph for St. Elizabeth Hospital, $6000.

1966—Defrayed expenses of underprivileged youths attending Boy Scout summer program at Camp Sunnen, $300.

1967 through present time—Contributed to Scholarship Fund for students at Granite City high school for approximately 13 years, $2000.

RESTYLED FURY line which dealers report have been made longer, wider and roomier highlights new series of Plymouth models that went on sale today at Elledge Motor Co., 19th street and Grand avenue, and Maddox Motors, Inc., 4100 Nameoki road.

New Plymouth Models Pace by '69 Fury Line

Paced by a completely restyled Fury line, 1969 model Plymouths went on sale today at Elledge Motor Co., 19th street and Grand avenue, and at Maddox Motors, Inc., 4100 Nameoki road.

Sherman Elledge and Robert Maddox, operators of the two firms, said that 1969 model designs, improvements and added safety factors are expected to assure heavy sales volume.

Elledge said sales of 1968 models were increased nearly 50%.

The Fury line has been expanded into longer, wider and roomier models with new curved side glasses, disappearing windshield wipers and a torsion-bar suspension system not available on any other car in the price class, the Plymouth dealers said.

The Satellite line also features a new Road Runner convertible as an addition to the fast-selling Road Runner series of last year.

More Cargo Room

The wider and longer all-new Fury station wagon series feature a new spoiler on the rear roof which keeps the rear window free of dirt and dust, along with a width of four feet plus in the cargo compartment.

Elledge and Maddox said there are literally dozens of new options available in a new manually operated six-way bucket seat that does everything an electrically-operated seat does, but at about half the cost.

The full line of new Plymouths consist of 64 models covering a full price range from the compact Valiant to the luxurious VIP Hard Top.

Prices for 1969 models announced this week show decreases of about 2% in the cost of some models, while others have been increased up to 2.9%, the two dealers said.

September Meeting

Set for Art Guild

A meeting of the Town and Country Art Guild is to be held on Sept. 26, in the conference room of the Morris Agency, Main and Center streets, Collinsville. Anyone within a 50-mile radius is invited to attend.

Mrs. Helen Neff will lecture and give a demonstration in encaustic, an ancient method of painting with beeswax and oil. Mrs. Neff is vice-president of the Guild and has studied and taught art for several years.

Licenses of Two GC

Drivers are Suspended

Suspension of two driver's licenses because of three violations by Granite City motorists was announced this week by the office of Secretary of State Paul Powell.

The suspensions are for William R. Clark, 3032 Edgewood avenue, and Russell J. Peters, 2510 Pine street.

Cardinal Champs Are Rotary Topic

Ken Taust, Cardinal public relations manager, was the featured speaker at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Rotary at the YMCA.

In his talk he spoke of team membership in line of a possible player draft and who they could protect. He said their Tulsa farm club has a number of talented young ball players that could be lost in the draft.

As another note of interest he told the group, Curt Flood had 228 errorless ball games this year. Also the Cardinal ball team has the highest budget of any of the teams in the sports world.

In discussing team pitching and batting, he said the pitchers are now taking more time for practice thus exerting more control of the ball, but that the batting members of the team are not taking nearly enough time in practice.

There are now 200 players on the Cardinal team and they can only protect 15 to start with in the case of a draft. The most any one team could lose is six players.

Warren Decatur, president, presided at the business session and all chairmen for the Modern Living Show gave last minute reports.

Single Easement Needed For GC Sanitary Sewer

Need for a sanitary sewer easement at Graceland General Baptist Church, 2033 Johnson road, was stressed during Monday night's city council session by Alderman Bartolow, chairman of the Special Sewer committee.

"The line has been installed on both sides up to the church property, and it looks like the city will have to send a letter to the church board to get the job done. This is the only stumbling block in the entire sanitary system," he added.

Non requested the line along West 22nd street be extended to include three homes in the 2700 block that now are not included in the project.

Reporting on the storm water system in East Granite, Bartolow said excavations at intersections are needed for eventual tap-outs from catch basins when the ditch along East 23rd street, and Nameoki road is completed.

Was Car Repaired

Council members were notified by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Craycraft, 2444 East 24th street, that the finish on their 1961 auto has been damaged by rocks from beneath passing autos at a sewer excavation.

He wrote in a letter that stated it would cost $200 to have the car refinished. The letter was referred to the council.

The contractor advised the council that his crew have been repairing the older sewer lines when breaks are uncovered. In the letter it was stated that the old lines are badly deteriorated and that the firm plans to negotiate with the city on the cost of replacements of breaks and leaks other than those caused during actual construction.

The letter was referred to the Special Sewer committee.

In other business, the council accepted a brief letter of resignation from Edward Juneau of the local engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab, who has been serving as public engineer under 30-day appointments by Mayor Partney. Juneau said he would resign effective Sept. 27 and gave no reason in the letter.

Selection of an engineer has been a controversial issue for the council for the past two decades.

The Seebold firm also was awarded two special improvement project contracts in other actions by the council. The firm bid low, $8772, for paving East 25th street from Nameoki to Anchorage Homes, and bid low, $8846, for installation of 2105 feet of curbing and gutters in the 2600 block of Center street.

Only other bidder on the two projects was G. H. Sternberg Co.—$6590 for the East 25th street job and $9093 for the work on Center street.

Belleville East is Next Warrior Gridiron Foe; Road Game Friday

The Granite City high school Fighting Warriors will go on the road Friday to play against the Belleville East Lancers. The game will start at 8 p.m. at the Belleville West Township field.

The Warriors will be going into the game with a record of 4-1 against Belleville Althoff last Friday and the Lancers will be seeking a second straight win. In its first game against Edwardsville, Belleville East rumbled to a decisive 38-6 victory.

Last year, when the two clubs met at the Warrior field, the Lancers won 27-0, and went on to finish the year with an 8-2 record. They were considered the third strongest team in the area.

The Lancers, who used primarily a running game against Edwardsville last week, are led in the backfield by Dave Chapman, 161-pound senior co-captain of the squad.

Chapman, who plays a half-back position, finished last year with an average of 9.5 yards per carry and scored 72 points for the team. He is again the scoring ace of the Lancers, getting two touchdowns against the Tigers on runs of four and 20 yards.

Tom Lang, a junior and a 174-pound transfer from Japan (his father was stationed there), plays the other halfback position. He broke loose for two touchdowns last week, on 43-yard and 17-yard sprints. He adds a lot of speed to the team, carrying the ball, catching the ball or catching passes from Quarterback Ken Swanson.

Swanson only threw one pass last season as a sophomore, a 23-yard scoring toss, after starting one varsity game as a freshman. He completed one of three aerials, an eight yarder, last week.

Earl Dayton, according to Lancer Coach Dean Renn, "is being counted on to help solidify the young defensive secondary at a safety position. He transferred in last year and spent a year learning the ropes."

Andy Snodgrass, 165-pound senior fullback, is a little on the light side for that position but, as Coach Renn says, "He is an impressive blocker. And last year, he averaged 6.2 yards per carry."

Lancer Rebuilding Year "This could be termed a rebuilding year for us, as we have a few outstanding seniors and hope to fill the voids left by graduation with 17 returning players."

One is Jim Greenwald, who last week rushed 101 yards on 20 carries against Belleville Althoff.

Greenwald, who operates out of the backfield, has been in the position, which enables him to do more scoring than any other player on the team.

Like the Lancers, the Warriors have many who play at an undisciplined sophomore level last year.

Lettermen and members of our first undefeated squad.

"Although 12 of our 19 are two-year lettermen, many of these boys earned lettermen status by playing in actual games, leaving a strong impression on the team."

"Our line is of average size and we have a 'pony' back, comparatively slow and weak. We feel that our success will depend on how fast our line can come along."

"Our punting will be done by Chuck Wilke, and he will probably do the place kicking, too. Offensively, the Lancers have three veteran lettermen—Bob Burns, senior 193-pound guard, and Tom Mueller, senior 177-pound guard and Chapman."

Defensively the Lancers have Jim Gattlin, 245-pound tackle, and Bob Grindl, 183-pound linebacker, as their returning starters.

"We have a number of injuries that will keep us in a tight spot on our lineup in the week. I'm only sure of my guards, a tackle and a couple of ends," the Lancer coach said.

"Chapman is being moved back into shape but is uncertain at this time."

"It was a bruising game and a lot closer than the final score indicated. We had good defense, which enabled us to do more scoring than they did."

More MHS Platooning The Madison coach said

Still in search of a victory, the Madison high school Trojan football team will be on the road again Saturday as it travels to Rosary of St. Louis for a 2 p.m. contest.

Coach Alvin Vander Haar reports that "we don't expect as much of a battle from Rosary as we got in our O'Fallon last week. I think that the O'Fallon team will probably prove to be the best that we will face this season."

One of the things Madison is working on this week is timing. Vander Haar told the Press-Record, "Our boys jumped the gun much too fast last week, and during this week's practices we're slowing down the blockers on the line." Penalties helped stymie the Trojans in the 27-0 loss.

Unlike Madison's first game, Coach Vander Haar has a full report of what to expect from Rosary. It is usually not possible to thoroughly scout the initial foe, but the MHS coach watched Rosary in action last Saturday.

Expect Passing Attack "Basically, we expect Rosary to run quite a few scissors plays, throw action passes, and quick passes, and try sweeps and inside traps."

"They generally use a 4-4 defense and set their linebackers where they need them on different plays."

On the scissors play, halfbacks slide to either the right or left side of the line. One halfback goes about 10 yards and the other six yards, and they break in separate directions for an open field pass.

Vander Haar added that "they have some slow developing plays that are going to give our linemen a better chance to move by their line and into the backfield."

"We will be working basically out of either an Oklahoma, Arkansas, or inverted defense, depending on what we think their offense will call on each play."

"Their linemen are quick, with the biggest men on the team weighing 200 and 205 pounds and playing the two tackle positions. They have some hard-running backs."

"Mainly, though, our own timing will be our objective. Especially on the defense that we are using, timing is important. Last week, O'Fallon would draw one of our men out of position and throw a broken field pass, for which there is no adequate defense."

"Mainly, though, our own timing will be our objective. Especially on the defense that we are using, timing is important. Last week, O'Fallon would draw one of our men out of position and throw a broken field pass, for which there is no adequate defense."

More MHS Platooning The Madison coach said

Still in search of a victory, the Madison high school Trojan football team will be on the road again Saturday as it travels to Rosary of St. Louis for a 2 p.m. contest.

Coach Alvin Vander Haar reports that "we don't expect as much of a battle from Rosary as we got in our O'Fallon last week. I think that the O'Fallon team will probably prove to be the best that we will face this season."

One of the things Madison is working on this week is timing. Vander Haar told the Press-Record, "Our boys jumped the gun much too fast last week, and during this week's practices we're slowing down the blockers on the line." Penalties helped stymie the Trojans in the 27-0 loss.

Unlike Madison's first game, Coach Vander Haar has a full report of what to expect from Rosary. It is usually not possible to thoroughly scout the initial foe, but the MHS coach watched Rosary in action last Saturday.

Expect Passing Attack "Basically, we expect Rosary to run quite a few scissors plays, throw action passes, and quick passes, and try sweeps and inside traps."

"They generally use a 4-4 defense and set their linebackers where they need them on different plays."

On the scissors play, halfbacks slide to either the right or left side of the line. One halfback goes about 10 yards and the other six yards, and they break in separate directions for an open field pass.

Vander Haar added that "they have some slow developing plays that are going to give our linemen a better chance to move by their line and into the backfield."

"We will be working basically out of either an Oklahoma, Arkansas, or inverted defense, depending on what we think their offense will call on each play."

5 Overseas Servicemen Chosen to Receive Calls

Five servicemen in Vietnam will receive telephone calls from their immediate families—thanks to a project sponsored by the Granite City Jaycees during the recent "Charity Days" event at the Nameoki Village shopping center.

The names of 75 servicemen were entered in the contest, with Lt. Col. David V. Fox, deputy commander of the Granite City Army Depot, and Miss Granite City—Leeta Marmon, selecting those to receive the calls.

Early Jazz-Ragtime to the Blues

"Early Jazz" by Gunther Schuller. New York: Oxford University Press, 1968. $9.75. 400 pages.

Reviewed by Gene Stiman, a member of the Department of Music Faculty of Southern Illinois University.

(Review published in the Daily Egyptian, Department of Journalism, SIU, Carbondale.)

Since his early teens, Gunther Schuller has been interested in jazz in addition to his duties as instrumentalist in the Metropolitan Opera, teaching, conducting and composing.

Among his students and associates, he receives the highest acclaim for his profound musical abilities.

Mr. Schuller is the president of the New England Conservatory of Music and has received world acclaim for his 1966 opera, "The Visitation."

Much work has gone into the preparation of "Early Jazz." To paraphrase the author, jazz has never had a systematic, comprehensive history dealing with the specifics of music.

This book, the first of two volumes, is Mr. Schuller's answer to such questions as: What is jazz? Where did it come from? Why did it develop? What makes it work?

The first chapter deals with the origins of jazz. Many theories are proposed to explain the evolution of the components of jazz.

Logical conclusions are drawn to show that rhythm, form, harmony, melody, timbre and improvisation are all essentially African in background and derivation.

Precedent in Illinois Laws for Authority to Transplant Hearts

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

Precedents already established under Illinois law give lawyers and medical practitioners answer some of the legal questions arising out of the medical world's search for advance—survival heart-transplant surgery.

State law already provides a method by which a person may legally donate his or her heart to science.

A law relating to wills and estates gives any person of the age of 18 years who is "of sound mind and memory" the right to donate all or part of his body to science, either by a will or other written instrument executed during lifetime.

Such a gift may be made to various authorities and institutions named in the law, including any "legally licensed hospital or other organization intended and equipped to distribute human bodies or parts thereof."

The gift may be used as these organizations "may see fit."

The statute further states that such "gift shall become immediately effective upon death" and no person acting in cause of any subsequent revocation of the gift about which he had no knowledge.

Thus, doctors and lawyers have at least something to go on in their efforts to resolve legal questions surrounding heart transplant operations.

Moreover, as to the question of the moment of death of a donor—the moment at which his heart becomes available to support the life of another human being—the precedent is perhaps even clearer.

Widened Optical Range Discloses Cancer Tissue, Plant Life, Water

(American Institute of Physics)

In most ways the human eye is a remarkable optical instrument.

It can focus on objects from a few inches to infinity. It can resolve—at normal reading distances—objects less than five-thousandths of an inch across. And it can adjust to conditions of brightness that vary by a factor of a million.

However, the eye is sensitive to merely a small portion of the optical spectrum. We see objects only when they are heated 1000 degrees or when they reflect light from objects at these temperatures.

At lower temperatures, objects continue to emit light, but the infrared radiation they emit is invisible to humans.

For about 25 years, man has been developing instruments that can "see" in this part of the spectrum, and advances in the past few years have been especially rapid.

The most recent developments in infrared detection are summarized in the current issue of "Applied Optics," a pub-

Scheduled Resumption of Madison Classes Good News to Most People

The decision to begin the Madison school term next Monday, apparently bolstered by a circuit court ruling last week, will be welcomed by most taxpayers and parents. There may be less enthusiasm among pupils, who have been on an unscheduled four-week vacation due to the teacher-school board dispute.

The ruling, which is being appealed, was that individual teachers' contracts are still in effect because the Federation of Teachers cannot "resign" from the Formal Resignations by each teacher would have led to a search for permanent replacements, and the school board has avoided dismissing anyone, in the hope that many of the teachers would decide to report for work next week.

In obtaining the court declaration, the school system received what it regards as authority to hire substitute instructors. That is, and both parties to the hearing avoided any punitive action against specific teachers, and it seems obvious that "all will be forgiven" if schools can be placed in operation.

Madison officials are hopeful of having enough tenure teachers, instructors newly hired this summer and substitutes to conduct either regular or split-shift classes. By acting now, they are endeavoring to prevent their state tax aid, without which there would be an insurmountable budget imbalance.

Faculty holdouts will be understandably displeased with such developments because they have not yet been able to negotiate what they consider reasonable settlement terms. Certainly, if classes are resumed on a makeshift basis, there will need to be full discussions and vigorous efforts by both sides to quickly restore conditions permitting a harmonious relationship.

Students remain the central figures in the controversy. They have an opportunity to learn, and what happens within each classroom is still the most important part of education. They have learned something during the past month, that the world is not quite as neat and orderly as their textbooks might indicate. This kind of wisdom, of course, will not be enough to equip them to deal with our complex civilization.

The latest court action again sidesteps the basic question of whether the teachers have the legal right to strike. Somewhere, sometime, there should be a court decision, perhaps in a friendly test case, to clear the air. Failure of the Illinois judicial system to come to grips with this issue is unfair to employees, employers and the public.

Effort Being Made to Cut Council in Half

Citizens will watch with interest the effort to obtain a vote this fall on reducing Granite City council membership from two to one alderman on each ward.

Whether such an election can take place with the general election Nov. 5 may depend on the adequacy of the present city charter, but also the state of the simultaneous suit to trim wards from eight to seven, and a decision on whether county-township precincts can be used for city balloting.

It is interesting that no councilmen have expressed opposition to the proposal, and that a citizen and an editor of a reflects the kinds of attitudes and incidents that precipitate civil and racial ill feelings.

Some similar incidents elsewhere have provided the spark to raging fires that left untold property damage and loss of lives.

Since the perpetrator of this offense is in a position of public service, surely a careful screening of applicants seems to be needed.

If such screening were to fail, and the true character reveals itself, as was the case, then immediate steps should be taken to remove the person from said responsibility.

MRS. PHYLLIS JACKSON, 4614 Carrie Avenue, St. Louis R.N., Assistant Director of Nursing for Psychiatry, The Jewish Hospital of St. Louis.

Vietnam Forgotten? Not One of Top Ten Issues in Mailbox Poll

By U. S. SENATOR CHARLES H. PERCY

The nomination of Abe Fortas to be Chief Justice of the United States is the issue now drawing the most mail to my office.

The "mailbox poll," resuming with the re-opening of Congress, shows the 10 top issues on the basis of communications received in my office.

For the first time since the mail has been tabulated during the past 20 months, Vietnam is not on the list. The top issues include:

1. Nomination of Abe Fortas to be Chief Justice.
2. The Democratic National convention, the disorders and their news coverage.
3. Attorney's fees bill.
4. Proposed Occupational and Safety Health Act.
5. School bus program in South Holland, Ill.
6. Firearms control.
7. The Chicago park district and the Monroe street harbor.
8. Electoral reforms that would provide national presidential primary.
9. Proposed Constitutional amendment on prayer.

Investing for Retirement Years

(Investment Education Institute)

Q. My husband will be 65 and retire next year. We have managed to save about $20,000 in three mutual funds, $10,000 in 3M stock and $9,000 in cash. Should we sell the 3M stock and put it (and part of our cash) into a blue chip stock fund? We would have $3600 income tax position. At that time, we will have double exemptions ($1200 each), plus having less taxable income.

A. You have a fairly sensible program. I really see no reason to sell your 3M stock. It has had a fine growth record. If you sell, you will have to pay capital gains taxes. It would be at least wait until your husband has retired so that you will be in a better income tax position. At that time, you will have double exemptions ($1200 each), plus having less taxable income.

Q. Five of us who recently graduated from college are interested in forming an investment club. We have settled in different cities, so we will probably let one of us do all the buying and selling. Some of us favor working in commodities rather than stocks.

A. We have all been close friends for a long time, so we could accept any loss without friction. We were thinking in terms of $40 per month and withholding investment for a few years until we had an appreciable amount to work with. Would you advise us?

A. I can't think of a better way to put friendship to the test. In our experience, few groups have been able to operate successfully when the membership is widely separated.

If you decide to go ahead, your second major problem is to decide on a consistent investment philosophy and then stick to it. I am sending you a National Association Investment Clubs manual and suggest you adopt the philosophy outlined there.

It is not necessary to have your money until you have a sizable amount. You will take most of your losses during your early experience while you are learning, and you will lose less working with a small amount of money than a large amount during this learning period.

Also, if you are thinking that it costs more to buy stock in odd lots, I would point out that the increased commission on odd lots is not that prohibitive. You will save five years on make your first investment and if we have 2% to 3% inflation during that period, you may well wind up paying 10% to 15% more.

Keep Tax Record of Medical Bills

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q—I just finished paying some big medical bills. What records should I keep in case I get audited?

A—You should have sufficient records to show that the expenses were deductible and that they were paid in the year for which the return was filed. Keep your canceled checks or receipts that will establish the actual amount of the expense, the date paid and the purpose. It is a good practice to have a special envelope, cigar box or other container where tax records can be stored. This will make it easier to prepare an accurate return each year.

To be deductible the expense must be paid for the prevention, treatment, diagnosis or cure of a mental or physical defect or illness.

Q—I worked on a farm this summer and the foreman said I will have to pay estimated tax on my wages. Is that right?

A—If you are not subject to income tax withholding and you may have to file an estimated tax return to put your pay-as-you-go basis. This fall would be the time for filing an estimated declaration or grossed-up wages. If a declaration filed previously.

Declarations must usually be filed if the estimated tax exceeds your expected withholding by $40 or more. Details on the estimated tax requirements and the tax forms needed are available at local IRS offices.

Taxpayers who have already filed estimated tax declarations should be sure to take the new 195% tax surcharge into account when they make their payments.

50 YEARS AGO

SEPTEMBER 19, 1918

With President Wilson urging that Lyceum and Chautauqua programs be continued despite the war, a five-concert Lyceum series has been planned here. It will begin Oct. 14 with the appearance of a company headed by Sam Lewis, "the Welsh Melodist."

President Wilson said such programs aid in fostering patriotic principles and in spreading accurate information about the war.

Merced Defeated Charles Hilker 375-107 in an Election to Fill the Unexpired Term of Alex Robertson on the Granite City Board of Education.

By a vote of 625 to 332, a $20,000 bond issue to purchase a 13-acre park site at 30th street and Madison avenue was rejected by local voters. The funds would have been sufficient to buy the proposed park, equip it and maintain it for the first year.

25 YEARS AGO

SEPTEMBER 19, 1943

There is a critical shortage of all types of foundry workers in the Tri-Cities. An estimated 5000 will be required to meet local needs in the next six months, including 1500 at the Armor plant in Madison. The need results from plant expansions and replacement of persons who quit, are discharged or leave for military service.

U. S. GOING DOWNHILL, NIXON COULD REBUILD IT

To the Editor:

Lawrence O'Brien, Democratic national chairman, gives absolutely no credit to Richard M. Nixon's proposed program of rebuilding a nearly bankrupt country. He says Nixon has "orchestrated the nation back to the times and conditions of the early 1930s."

With our increased population, automation and advances in science, this to me was a naive statement.

Our problems stem from the Democratic philosophy, which misinterprets the meaning of our national Constitution. This document was formulated with an almost perfect blending of progress and the greatest common progress to motivate the people.

Under this system we have produced more wealth and national output and have expanded our territory to 50 states and other possessions. From 1900 to now we have exceeded 200 million population.

But under the guidance of Democratic leadership and various programs, the people have been taught the philosophy that the executive branch is the greatest danger to the people. Many have believed this and become the sheep who are now faced with a drying pasture—a nearly dried-up Treasury Department.

Our foreign cousins have lost respect for us as a Free World leader. We have used American tax money over the years to bolster many warring nations that are now much more financially stable than we are.

Some of these nations, Soviet Russia, China and the Arab states, are just waiting to jump down our throats.

Nixon believes that we have millions of underprivileged people in the U. S., including the aged, the blind, the handicapped and the unemployed. They are in need, and watch our wealth being poured out across the sea to help the people of illiterate and belligerent countries and participate in wars that have brought untold suffering, loss of American lives and expenditure of billions of dollars.

There must be a stopping point. Nixon can halt this destructive wheel of misfortune.

Local Marine With Howitzer Battery

Marine Corps Pfc Edward F. Gregory, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Gregory, 128 Voight place, Mitchell, is serving as a motor transport driver with the First Eight-inch Howitzer Battery (SP), Third Marine Division in Vietnam.

In recent action, the howitzer proved to be one of the most destructive weapons in Vietnam, incapacitating nearly a regiment of NVA artillery by destroying 19 artillery weapons and damaging an additional 25, Pfc Gregory wrote his parents.

Firing 200-pound rounds out to a maximum range of 10½ miles, the comparatively new, highly mobile, self-propelled M110 howitzers are the Marine Corps' deadliest and most accurate weapon. In the recent action, the Marine Corps guns caused 92 secondary explosions, destroyed 42 bunkers, collapsed 105 meters of trenchline and set fire to an ammunition depot which burned and exploded for 2½ hours.

Last month, the vehicles of the battery traveled nearly 18,000 miles, delivering over 700 tons of ammunition to the guns.

Pfc Gregory would like to hear from his friends here. He is a 1968 graduate of Granite City and has been in the Marine Corps for one year.

His address is Pfc Edward F. Gregory, 2404746, First 8" Howitzer Bty (SP), 3rd Marine Division, FPO San Francisco, Cal. 96062.

Price to Issue 5 Reports on U. S. Spending in Area

Congressman Melvin Price, (D), East St. Louis, announced in Washington today he will issue five reports to the residents of the 24th Congressional District of Illinois detailing the "present impact and future promise" of federal government activity and spending in the 24th District during the last fiscal year.

Cong. Price explained, "In recent years the U. S. government has been subjected to increasing criticism for its spending activities. Certainly not every program has been a total success. No reasonable man would make such a claim. But the Congress has initiated programs which benefit every individual and family in our area."

A typical family in the 24th District might find the husband employed at one of the many military facilities or defense contractors that dot the metropolitan region. The highways he travels to and from his plant or office are usually part of modern interstate highway systems. In a few years this man and his wife will be eligible for Social Security and Medicare benefits.

"This typical family man understands the benefits that a higher education will provide for his children. Often the family will look to U. S. government scholarships or loan programs to finance the son or daughter's college education. The universities that these young men and women will attend have benefited by government loans and grants."

"In the next few years this family will be receiving increased protection from crime and violence from its local police force and courts because of new Congressional programs to expand and train local enforcement officers."

"Some attack these benefits as creeping socialism. I must disagree. These benefits do not destroy individual freedom and initiative. By emancipating the individual economically, geographically, and educationally, freedom, initiative, and independence have been enhanced."

"It is my purpose in presenting these reports to bring into sharp focus the forgotten benefits that these programs have yielded for every household in the 24th District during the past fiscal year. The typical household must be made aware of the importance of these programs in his daily life and the dangers involved in following the dangerous call of propaganda and demagoguery."

Five Area Registration Centers Open This Week

Five more special registration centers will be conducted this weekend by deputy registrars of the county clerk's office to accept new voter registrations and record changes for currently registered voters, it was announced today by County Clerk Eulalia Horz.

The special registration, activities are planned this weekend in Granite City, Madison, Mitchell and State Park Place. The pre-election registration program is conducted by the clerk's office prior to each major election as a convenience to voters who otherwise would have to travel to Edwardsville to register or update their registration records. Oct. 7 is the last day for registration, Miss Horz said.

Schedule of registration centers this weekend includes: Granite City — Friday, Sept. 20, First Granite City National Bank, 4 to 7 p.m.; Saturday, Sept. 21, Anchorage Homes recreation hall, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Madison — Saturday, Sept. 21, Memorial Center, Third street and Washington avenue, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mitchell — Friday, Sept. 20, Cedar Park Confectionery, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

State Park — Saturday, Sept. 21, State Park Place School, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

You say people are afraid to get involved?

...not everyone.

Many telephone people have made it their business to get involved in other people's problems. They've saved hundreds of lives in the process, often risking their own safety.

Over the years, 240 Southwestern Bell employees have been awarded the Vail Medal, an award recognizing acts which exemplify the company's highest traditions of service.

Among our Vail Medal winners are employees who... pulled a mother and her son from the rushing waters of a turbulent river... carried a baby from a blazing trailer home... dragged a man and woman from a burning car.

The list goes on and on.

And we're proud of them all. They're the kind of people you can count on to get involved.

STEAKS AREN'T KNOWN by brand names. So you try one out, then another, until you find a man who sells what suits your taste. Homes rarely have brand names, either. But if you buy a house you can't go shopping the next day to correct it. So it's terribly important that you look for a home only through a person who displays this national brand. This seal identifies a Realtor.

'Keep Dogs at Home,' City Board Urges

An appeal by the Granite City Animal Shelter Board to the parents and children is being made through the president, Mrs. W. W. Bowers, asking them to keep animals at home or on a leash when walking them.

There is a city ordinance prohibiting dogs to run at large, the president pointed out, explaining it is designed to protect the animals as well as the residents. "Since school has opened many dogs follow children to school," she added, "making it necessary for the Humane Officer to pick up the animals and take them to the shelter."

Whiteway to Route 151 Proposed by City

"Brighten the way to the downtown district," Fifth Ward Alderman Steve Basarich urged Monday night in asking Granite City council members to consider a "bright, whiteway system" along Niedringhaus avenue from 18th street to the Army Depot gate.

Basarich pointed out that the Great River Road (Route 151) now under construction through West Granite and Lincoln Place "will be dead-ending at Niedringhaus avenue for a long time, and we might as well give good direction and lighting for the traffic right to our downtown district."

The alderman has been heading the Light committee and was given approval to confer with officials of Illinois Power

Co. on the types of lighting and costs.

Requests for lights in alleys and a street light also were submitted Monday night, and a resolution is to be prepared. Alley locations specified were 2417 Iowa, 2225 East 23rd street, 2604 Cayuga street, 2915 Oregon avenue, 2800 Illinois avenue and in the street at 3227 Princeton avenue.

Stop Sign Requests

There also were requests for preparation of ordinances to establish new stop signs and for the repeal of a no-parking law along Franklin avenue from Pontoon road to waterman avenue, petitioned by customers of the Maryland Bi-Rite Market.

Residents of the 2700 and 2800 blocks of Denver street petitioned for a stop sign at McKinley avenue and there also was a petition for stop signs on 18th street at Delmar avenue. A 20 mph school zone in the vicinity of Niedringhaus grade school and the senior high school was requested, for the zone to extend on State street north from 26th street and Felling road north of Benton street.

Other ordinances to be prepared are for recommendations by the City Plan Commission for annexation of the Good Shepherd EUB Church, 3025 National avenue, that is completely surrounded by the city, and for rezoning a tract along Namecki drive at the Illinois Terminal Railroad crossing near Highway 3 from R-1 residential to B (business) for continued use of the area for oil storage tanks. The request was made by Mrs. Justine Walker.

A recommendation by the Zoning Appeals Board to grant a side property line variance was approved for James Schwendemann, 3005 Forest avenue, to construct a basement and add a half-story to his home. He is to be permitted a 4½-foot side yard instead of the seven feet—required in an R-2 area.

A circuit court notice of a $15,000 suit against the city for injuries suffered in a sidewalk fall in the 2200 block of Grand avenue on Aug. 14 was referred to the city attorney. The plaintiff is Mrs. Patricia Thomas of 75 Maurene court.

An arrangement for payment of the $17,500 judgement to Mrs.

Veima Rapp for injuries suffered in a sidewalk fall in the 2200 block of Madison avenue about two years ago was outlined in a letter from City Atty. Allen. With interest and court costs, the total amount is $17,917 with immediate payment of $7331, a second payment of $5731 on Nov. 15 and $4855 to be paid Jan. 15.

Council members approved expense allowances of $175 each for aldermen and city officials who will be attending the Illinois Municipal League convention in Peoria on Oct. 12-15. No limit was placed on the number of persons to attend.

Taken under consideration was a suggestion by Alderman Poulos for the city to install a "Welcome to Granite City" sign on Missouri avenue at the city limits.

Placed on file was a letter from the Illinois Commerce

Commission stating that the city resolution objecting to the discontinuance of Norfolk & Western Railroad passenger trains had been entered as evidence during a recent hearing.
